

NATIONAL SEATING & MOBILITY BROADENS FOOTPRINT WITH CALIFORNIA ACQUISITION

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (May 8, 2018) - National Seating & Mobility (NSM), North America's most experienced provider of complex rehabilitation seating, mobility and positioning systems, broadens the company's footprint with the acquisition of Western Rehab in California. The purchase adds locations in Santa Rosa and Paradise/Chico, Calif. to the company's national network of branches serving individuals with mobility needs.

"Our vision is to honor the journey of independence for individuals with mobility challenges," said Bill Mixon, NSM CEO. "Expanding our service reach in Northern California allows us to impact more lives with mobility solutions that drive independence. We look forward to working alongside health professionals to serve these communities."

Mark Hawkins, former owner of Western Rehab, along with the field team, including three experienced assistive technology professionals (ATPs), will stay on board post-acquisition to serve clients from both California branches at 3535 Industrial Drive in Santa Rosa and 6457 Skyway in Paradise.

"Mark is iconic in the field of CRT in California," said Mixon. "We are proud to welcome him and these experienced professionals to the NSM team."

Western Rehab has been providing rehab solutions in these communities since 1993. The company's primary focus has been on pediatric rehab equipment.

"NSM's client-centric culture ensures that we can continue to do the right things for our clients," said Hawkins. "The company's resources, systems and processes allow us to bring advanced mobility solutions to those who need them. We are honored to be a part of this growing national network of industry-leading professionals."
