NATIONAL SEATING & MOBILITY ACQUISITION BOLSTERS NORTHEAST FOOTPRINT

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (May 25, 2021) — National Seating & Mobility (NSM), North America’s largest provider of comprehensive mobility solutions, has acquired All-Ways Accessible, the home accessibility market leader in New Hampshire, Vermont and Maine.

“The All-Ways Accessible team has an established reputation of excellence in the northeast, and we’re pleased to build upon those services through this acquisition,” said Bill Mixon, NSM CEO. “Mobility often goes beyond the chair, and NSM is committed to helping customers find solutions in their home or on the go. We’re proud to continue expanding holistic mobility and accessibility options throughout New Hampshire, Vermont and Maine.”

Headquartered in Concord, New Hampshire, All-Ways Accessible was founded by 30-year industry veteran Jeff Lavoie and is a leader in residential elevators, stairlifts, patient lifts, vertical platform lifts and modular ramps. Including Lavoie, the acquisition will welcome 16 new employees to the NSM team.

NSM also supports home accessibility needs through the Home Depot’s Independent Living Center locations at select retail locations across the country. For more information, visit homedepot.com/services/c/independent-living/c726d9a00.

NSM has secured four acquisitions this year to date that involve expanding NSM360 complete mobility and accessibility service solutions in New York, Massachusetts, Vermont, Georgia, Indiana, Illinois, Nevada, New Hampshire, Vermont and Maine and adding 41 new employees to the NSM team.
