

NATIONAL SEATING & MOBILITY OPENS NEW CHICAGO BRANCH, MERGES THREE AREA LOCATIONS

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (April 10, 2018) - Complex Rehab Technology (CRT) Solutions provider, National Seating & Mobility \(NSM\), has opened a new Chicago branch. Three existing area branches will merge with this new location.

“Merging the three existing Chicago area branches within our new location enables us to enhance the services provided for our clients in the area,” said Bill Mixon, NSM CEO. “The larger location allows our Chicago team to combine resources, increase evaluations and streamline routing and service scheduling so we can serve our clients better and faster.”

NSM branches in Broadview, Bridgeview and Lombard, Ill. will merge with the new location at 5444 East Avenue in Countryside, Ill. Twelve ATPs, and 23 team members including technicians, funding specialists and customer service representatives will serve Chicago-area clients from the new branch.

“We look forward to continuing our work alongside area physicians and therapists to provide the best customized solutions for individuals with mobility challenges in Chicago,” said Mixon.
