

NSM BROADENS NORTHEAST PRESENCE WITH ACQUISITION

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (July 19, 2018) —National Seating & Mobility (NSM) is broadening the company's Northeast presence with the acquisition of Maximum Mobility in Sayre, Pennsylvania. The addition positions the Complex Rehabilitation Technology (CRT) and mobility solutions leader to expand its service reach across northern Pennsylvania and the southern tier of Upstate New York.

“New locations allow us to reach more individuals in need of mobility solutions,” said Bill Mixon, CEO. “We are proud to partner with health care providers and therapists in the market to find innovative ways to help their patients move through life.”

Experienced assistive technology provider (ATP) and occupational therapist, Jeff Klossner has owned Maximum Mobility since 2003; he will transition to the NSM family as a branch manager, and will continue to lead the team as a practicing ATP in the new branch.

AccessNSM, a division of NSM, will utilize a retail showroom on site to offer a range of home accessibility products as well.

NSM operates existing branches in Philadelphia, Harrisburg, Allentown, Reading, and Pittsburgh, with an additional satellite in Erie.
