

NSM INCREASES TEXAS FOOTPRINT WITH ACQUISITION

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (August 30, 2018) —National Seating & Mobility (NSM), North America’s most experienced provider of complex rehabilitation seating, mobility and position systems, is increasing the company’s Texas footprint with the acquisition of Seating and Mobility Solutions in Waco. This Central Texas addition further strengthens NSM’s growing presence in the state.

“Seating and Mobility Solutions has been a respected Waco-area CRT provider,” said Bill Mixon, NSM CEO. “We look forward to working with their clients and bringing additional services and advanced solutions to the community.”

Twenty-five-year CRT industry veteran from Central Texas, Robert Morgan and Bill Holt, an experienced ATP with 21 years experience in Texas will transition to the NSM team.

“NSM’s core values align with those of Seating and Mobility Solutions and our client base in Central Texas,” said Robert Morgan. “Shared values, along with the funding partnerships and support the organization provides allowing us to better serve our clients, were driving factors in our decision to join NSM.”

With this acquisition, NSM will operate 10 locations Texas. NSM has existing branches in Dallas, Austin, Midland, Abilene, Houston, San Antonio, Beaumont and McAllen.
